Website I have drawn inspiration from: Curbed

Concepts I have learned:

- Navigation bar
- Inline Block (to position my blocks of text)
- Positioning (Fixed header)
- Div (to group different sections)
- Container (to group different sections together)
- Change background color or image/pattern
- Change font/using Google font
- Add images to a website
- Create multiple pages for a website
- Add icons and images with icons

Concepts I will need to learn:

- Use icons instead of text to link
- Create opacity when hovering over
- Opacity and text in front of images
